

February News

Kindergarten is full of learning! We have been working hard and learning many new things while reviewing things we have already learned. I am very proud of the growth students have made since returning from Christmas break.

Events

February 14- Valentine's Day
February 16- Early Release & Conferences
February 17- No School

Reminders

Valentine's Day is coming up! We will be handing out valentines cards if you chose to send them in with your child. I will be sending home a letter with more information. Conferences are coming up but are not mandatory for all students. The teacher or parent may request a conference. I will also be sending more information home.
