

In the preparations for not seeing each other in a classroom setting for three weeks, 7th Grade focused on advancing the details for their app. Each student worked on designing the options for an emotion that will be focused on with our PBL.

