

STUDENT THREATS POLICY

What constitutes a THREAT?

Whenever an individual believes that his/her personal safety has been put in jeopardy or challenged, a threat has occurred. It may be verbal, written, or done through use of technology.

The following steps will also be followed when "Cyber-bullying" has occurred.

Procedures for expulsion as the result of a student threat:

- A. The police shall be notified immediately of the threat.
- B. The parent/guardian of the student who has made the threat shall be notified immediately.
- C. Any adult or the parent/guardian of any students who have been verbally mentioned as potential victims or listed in writing as potential victims shall be notified immediately.
- D. Counseling shall be made available to children who are victims of the threatening behavior or who observed the threatening behavior if it is determined that counseling is needed and parental permission is granted.
